THANKING THE MEDIA ON WORLD RADIO DAY

-Following increased Media Engagements and Promotion of our Humanitarian Actions

February 13 is celebrated annually as World Radio Day. This year the event is celebrated under the theme: "Radio and Trust". On this day, the LNRCs congratulate every radio Journalist and radio station across Liberia for the wonderful work being done to keep the public informed with their limited resources. We applaud your journalistic skill, appreciate your objectivity, and are particularly amazed at your fair and accurate reporting and excellent coverage. We are sincerely thankful that you did not only put us on the spotlight, but you always dedicate your lives to covering your communities deeply and are always there on the ground, when big news breaks. We appreciate your sacrifices to the nation and communities.
